CLI and NTT UD Asia Launch PHP 9.2 B The Wave Towers, Marking First International Joint Venture

News Summary

- CLI introduces The Wave Towers, a PHP 9.2 billion Japanese-inspired residential project in Cebu I.T. Park, in partnership with Japan's NTT UD Asia. This is CLI's first international joint venture.
- The first of two towers offers 709 premium units with minimalist Japanese-inspired aesthetics and quality interiors. It has two floors of expansive amenity decks for wellness and recreation.
- The project marks a milestone collaboration between CLI and NTT Urban Development (NTT UD) Asia, a subsidiary of Japan's NTT Group, one of the largest ICT and telecommunications companies in the world.

Rooted in Japan, Rising from Cebu—A new wave of living has arrived. Cebu Landmasters, Inc. (CLI) and Japan's NTT Urban Development (NTTUD) Asia have officially introduced The Wave Towers, a landmark PHP 9.2 billion premium residential project in Cebu IT Park—Cebu's premier business and lifestyle hub, and one of the country's top IT economic zones outside Metro Manila. It also unveiled The Wave Towers showroom to give a glimpse of the project's features and model units now open to the public.

Developed under CLI NUD Ventures, a joint venture between CLI and NTTUD Asia, The Wave Towers is the first project from this landmark partnership and CLI's first international joint venture. NTTUD, the real estate arm of Japan's NTT Group—the third largest listed company in Japan—has a global footprint spanning New York, London, Boston, Melbourne, and Tokyo.

This collaboration shows a strong vote of confidence in CLI's proven track record, bringing international credibility and long-term investment value.

Inspired by the calm, purposeful design philosophy of Japan and enriched with Cebuano craftsmanship and creativity, The Wave Towers introduces a serene yet prestigious lifestyle to one of Cebu's most dynamic business districts.

“With The Wave Towers, we’re setting a new standard for Cebu’s urban living, where design meets cultural respect and harmony,” said CLI chairman and CEO Jose Soberano III. “This vision is made possible through our partnership with NTT UD Asia, blending their global design expertise with our local insight to create homes that reflect purpose and lasting value.”

The Wave Towers will feature two residential buildings, starting with the 40-storey Nagomi Tower, from the Japanese word nagomi meaning “harmony” or “calm”. The first tower will offer 709 premium residential units designed for modern living. Each unit features minimalist interior with clean lines and neutral tones as well as modern furnishings such as smart digital lockset and intercom, TOTO (or equivalent) fixtures in bathrooms, LVT flooring in bedrooms and others.

The two-tower development offers lifestyle facilities to enhance daily living. Residents will enjoy two floors of curated amenities. The 6th Floor Amenity Deck features a pool complex with a sauna and spa, fitness center, Japanese garden, kids’ play area, and game room for relaxation and recreation. On the 37th floor, the Sky Amenity Deck includes a lounge library, wellness gym, and open-air sky deck with stunning views. Retail spaces on the ground and podium levels provide elevated dining experience for residents. Wide corridors, five elevators, and full backup power provide comfort, convenience and peace of mind.

The Wave Towers offers a premium unit mix designed for strong value appreciation and upscale demand , including studio, 1-bedroom, 2-bedroom, and 3-bedroom units.

The Wave Towers showroom is located at India Street, Cebu I.T. Park and will be open to the public at 8:30 am to 5:30 pm, Mondays to Fridays. For more information, please get in touch with our
