Gentlemen:

We respond to the letter dated July 16, 2025 of the Philippine Dealing & Exchange Corp. seeking confirmation of the news article published in the Daily Tribune on July 16, 2025, titled "UnionBank expands in Cebu with new Aboitiz Corporate Center branch", which states:

"UnionBank has opened a new branch at the Aboitiz Corporate Center in Cebu City, reinforcing its commitment to enhancing financial access in one of the region's key business hubs. The state-of-the-art branch emphasizes customer-centric banking with paperless transactions, intuitive self-service tablets, and 24/7 ATM services, catering to both individual and business clients.

"This new branch is more than just a physical space. It is a reflection of our belief in Cebu's continued growth and our dedication to being part of that journey. Whether you're a long-time client or someone who is just beginning your financial relationship with us, we are here to serve you with excellence, innovation, and care," said UnionBank President and CEO Ana Aboitiz Delgado during the ribbon-cutting ceremony.

Delgado highlighted the deep connection between UnionBank and Cebu, likening the bank's relationship with the city to an acacia tree planted by the Aboitiz family over a century ago. "Cebu has always been a city full of promise—rich in culture, commerce, and strong community spirit. It's where my family put down roots more than a century ago, and where our businesses first began to grow," she said. "As we grow our presence here, we're not just opening a new branch—we're strengthening our bond with the people and businesses that keep Cebu thriving."

The branch, UnionBank's 20th in the region, was inaugurated with a blessing attended by Cebu City Mayor Nestor Archival, who praised the bank's commitment to service and innovation. He noted the professionalism and personalized approach of UnionBank's team, which fosters trust and supports community growth.

We confirm the above-quoted excerpt from the article.

Very truly yours,

ATTY. JOSELITO V. BANAAG
