Clarification of News Report

This is in response to your request for clarification of the news article entitled, "ACEN unit allots P34.5B for 247-MW Banahaw Wind project" on 28 August 2025. The article reported in part that:

"MANILA, Philippines —ACEN Corp., the listed energy arm of the Ayala Group, seeks to scale up its wind power portfolio with a proposed P34.5-billion facility in Quezon province.

Based on a document submitted to the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, the company's subsidiary Gigawind4 Inc., has proposed to build the Banahaw Wind Power Project in Tayabas City.

No timeline was provided in the document, but it noted that construction works may take about two years. Full commercial operations is expected within five years.

...."

We confirm that ACEN has plans to scale up its wind portfolio in the Quezon province and it continues to explore opportunities within the province, including the proposed Banahaw Wind Power project. This project, however, is in very early stages of pre-development and no investment decision has been made to date. The Company will provide more information in due course.
