Ladies and Gentlemen:

We write in connection with the request of the Philippine Dealing & Exchange Corp. for clarification of the news article entitled “BDO partners with VinGroup to push green transportation” on 18 September 2025, as follows:

“MANILA, Philippines — Local banking giant BDO Unibank has committed to bankroll green transportation in partnership with Vietnamese conglomerate VinGroup, which has deployed the Philippines’ first all-electric taxi fleet alongside charging stations.

In a press statement on Wednesday, BDO announced its commitment to provide end-to-end banking solutions to allow various operating units of VinGroup to scale operations.

The operating units are: VinFast Auto Philippines Inc. (VinFast Philippines), a fast-growing electric vehicle (EV) manufacturer; V-Green Charging Station Development Philippines Inc. (V-Green), a pioneer in EV charging infrastructure; and Green and Smart Mobility Philippines Inc. (Green GSM Philippines), an all-electric taxi fleet operator.

By supporting VinFast Philippines, BDO said it was enabling the group to expand the availability of electric vehicles (EVs). It was also strengthening ride-hailing services and bringing more sustainable transport options to the Philippine market.

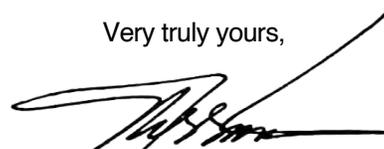

Through this partnership, VinFast Philippines is given access to BDO’s comprehensive suite of banking solutions. This includes cash management, consumer banking and insurance services.
