Clarification of News Report

We confirm that the statements made during the Megawide Construction Corporation’s (the “Company”) Annual Stockholders' Meeting reflect the Company's current business outlook.

The projected net income of approximately ₱1.2 billion for 2026 and ₱1.8 billion for 2027 represents management's current targets based on the Company's existing plans and prevailing assumptions. These projections are forward-looking statements and remain subject to business, economic, regulatory, and market conditions that may cause actual results to differ.

The projected targets do not arise from any new material corporate development or transaction but reflect management's current business outlook. Accordingly, they do not have any immediate impact on the Company's business and operations.

The Company likewise confirms that, as of the date hereof, it is not aware of any other material information relating to the foregoing matter that was omitted from the news article and that requires disclosure under the applicable PSE Rules.

Other Relevant Information

None.

MEGAWIDE Construction Corp. is targeting a net income of about P1.2 billion this year as lower borrowing costs from debt reduction and growth in its construction and real estate businesses are expected to support earnings, its chief finance officer said on Wednesday.

"We are generally on track in terms of our plans and programs… We are looking to reach around P1.2 billion in net income for the year and possibly P1.8 billion in 2027," Chief Finance Officer Jez G. Dela Cruz said during the company's annual stockholders' meeting.

In relation to the foregoing, we confirm that the statements made during the Megawide Construction Corporation's (the "Company") Annual Stockholders' Meeting reflect the Company's current business outlook.

The projected net income of approximately ₱1.2 billion for 2026 and ₱1.8 billion for 2027 represents management's current targets based on the Company's existing plans and prevailing assumptions. These projections are forward-looking statements and remain subject to business, economic, regulatory, and market conditions that may cause actual results to differ.

The projected targets do not arise from any new material corporate development or transaction but reflect management's current business outlook. Accordingly, they do not have any immediate impact on the Company's business and operations.

The Company likewise confirms that, as of the date hereof, it is not aware of any other material information relating to the foregoing matter that was omitted from the news article and that requires disclosure under the applicable PSE Rules.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out to us.

Thank you and warm regards.
