Clarification of News Article

Gentlemen:

We have noted the publication of a news article in Daily Tribune on 29 July 2026[1], titled "Rockwell lines up P15-B war chest for expansion". The article reported in part that:

"Rockwell Land Corp. has secured a P15-billion long-term loan facility from Bank of the Philippine Islands (BPI), giving the property developer fresh firepower to bankroll expansion projects and fund other corporate requirements.

In a disclosure to the Philippine Stock Exchange on Wednesday, Rockwell said the proceeds will be used to partially finance capital expenditures and other general corporate purposes, strengthening its funding base as it continues to roll out new developments. (Emphasis supplied)
