Re: Joint Development and Investment Agreement Between A Brown Company, Inc.'s Subsidiaries and Aboitiz Renewables, Inc.

Gentlemen:

Please be advised that Manolo Fortich Power Corporation ("MFPC"), in which A Brown Company, Inc. ("ABCI") holds an indirect interest through its wholly owned subsidiary ABC Energy Inc. ("ABCEI"), has entered into a Joint Development and Investment Agreement ("JDIA") with ABCEI and Aboitiz Renewables, Inc. ("ARI"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Aboitiz Power Corporation ("AboitizPower"), on October 30, 2026. The JDIA covers the development, construction, financing and operation of a solar power generation facility integrated with a Battery Energy Storage System and related interconnection facilities, with an estimated capacity of 191 MWac, located in Barangay Dalirig, Manolo Fortich, Bukidnon (the "Project").

Under the JDIA, ARI intends to subscribe to new shares to be issued by MFPC, which, upon completion, will result in ARI holding a 60% equity interest in MFPC, with ABCEI retaining 40%. ABCEI will not be selling any of its existing shares in MFPC. The subscription proceeds will be paid to MFPC to fund the Project, and neither ABCI nor ABCEI will receive cash proceeds from the transaction.

The execution of definitive subscription agreements and the issuance of shares to ARI remain subject to the completion of customary conditions precedent, including satisfactory completion by ARI of its due diligence review on the Project.

The partnership is expected to bring to the Project the capital, construction and operating capabilities of AboitizPower. The transaction is in line with ABCEI's strategy of developing greenfield energy projects and partnering with established industry players for their construction and operation.

The total subscription price for ARI's 60% equity interest in MFPC represents less than 10% of ABCI's consolidated total assets as of December 31, 2025.

ABCI will make the appropriate disclosures upon closing of the transaction or any material development thereon.

Very truly yours,

ALLAN ACE R. MAGDALUYO
Compliance Officer
